GOLDRING/WOLDENBERG
INSTITUTE OF SOUTHERN
JEWISH LIFE (ISJL)

At the Goldring/Woldenberg Institute of Southern Jewish Life (ISJL), we believe that every Jewish child deserves an excellent Jewish education, no matter the size of their community. Our approach is multi-faceted: Curriculum, Community Support, and Collective Enrichment. The ISJL's experienced, energetic Education team is here to help every religious school succeed!

CURRICULUM

Our comprehensive curriculum is designed to give teachers the tools they need to create a meaningful Jewish educational experience for their students, and to provide a common body of Jewish knowledge throughout our region. Approximately 3,000 students benefit each year from an ISJL education.

COMMUNITY SUPPORT

For more than two decades, our program has grown and evolved to meet the needs of our communities. With the support of The Covenant Foundation, this year we're bringing in more educators, cohort-style learning opportunities, and an even more interconnected approach to educational support.

COLLECTIVE ENRICHMENT

From the annual Southern & Jewish Conference (formerly the ISJL Education Conference!) to monthly Coffee Talks with our Director of Education to exciting professional development opportunities, we believe the best way to learn is together.
